MORE ABOUT THE SHOW - Now in its 8th year, the Kamloops Arts Council's ART EXPOSED Regional Exhibition is a community-centered visual arts exhibit. Unique to Kamloops, Art Exposed is open; all residents of the TNRD are invited to submit artwork in any medium – 2D and 3D. All submissions will be displayed in the Old Courthouse Cultural Centre for the duration of the show. Artists must reside in the TNRD to be eligible for awards: Opening night there will be awards for Emerging and Established artists in both 2D and 3D and We realize that artists from rural communities some distance away from Kamloops may not be personal members of the KAC, but there is an opportunity for members of groups that have a KAC Group Membership to still participate. Realizing that artists from rural communities may not be able to volunteer or gallery sit and volunteering may be waived for those who find this a hardship. Deadline Feb 16 (or when we reach 200 pieces)
